Resource 8b.

Faking it! Scenario 1
Camp America
The fall out

- Jade lost a once in a lifetime opportunity to live and work in America because she now had a police record.
- She was very embarrassed because she had told all her friends she was going to America and had to tell everyone why she could no longer go.
- Jade's younger brother lost respect for his older sister and felt confused and let down by her behaviour.
- Jade's police record went on to affect her chances of getting a good job in the future.

Faking it! Scenario 2
Driving test
The fall out

- Steve had to face a lot of upset and disappointment from his family and lost their trust when he owned up to what he had done.
- Sam was unable to take his driving test as he could not produce his provisional licence.
- Steve's parents had to attend the Police station with Steve to collect the licence.
- Although Sam passed his test and got the job he missed 10 weeks of potential pay as a result of Steve's actions.

Faking it! Scenario 3
Identity
The fall out

- Georgia could not start the new role.
- She was very embarrassed to have to explain to everyone why she wasn't able to take up the promotion.
- She could not enjoy the pay rise
- She could not apply for a number of other good job opportunities – even though she had the experience and qualifications needed.
- Some workmates called her a thief and made a show of locking their possessions away safely.
- She could be charged with further offences; deception and not declaring her conviction in her current job.

Faking it! Scenario 4
Passport
The fall out

- Fiona's passport was confiscated by the doorman.
- Faith was refused entry to the club and had to go home alone.
- Faith had to face the upset and disappointment of her family when they found out. Her Mum was furious with her!
- Fiona was unable to get her passport back in time to travel.
- Fiona had to pay for her flight again. This time it cost her £300 more!
- Faith had to attend the police station with her parents to be spoken to and to get the passport back.

Faking it! Scenario 5
The part time job
The fall out

- Jamal had chosen not to declare the conviction in his application so the employer believed that he was dishonest.
- Jamal had wanted a career in restaurant management and needed the work experience to support his application to college.
- He wanted driving lessons and without a job this was impossible.
- His confidence was knocked and he was very embarrassed to tell his friends.
- He tried to gain an advantage by presenting false information. This could have consequences in law for him.

Faking it! Scenario 6
New home
The fall out

- Kai and Shauna had their mortgage application turned down.
- Shauna was upset that they couldn't buy the flat they wanted and blamed Kai for being careless.
- Shauna and Kai were embarrassed to tell everyone they couldn't get a mortgage.
- They continued to live with her parents.
- It caused a lot of arguments in their relationship.
- The girl attended the police station with her parents. The seriousness of her actions was explained to her. She was ashamed about what she had done.