

1. Scary Movie

Resource 5a.

A group of friends decide to go to see the latest film at the local multiplex cinema. The cinema is located near bars and clubs.

They decide to see the late night screening starting at 10:00pm and when they arrive the bars are already busy with lots of people drinking heavily. The film ends at midnight and the friends wait outside the cinema for a lift home. They become aware of a group of very drunk young people shouting abusive comments at them.

The friends ignore them but they are approached by the drunken people and the situation quickly becomes very intimidating...

2. Home Alone

Stuart has spent the evening socialising with his friends from college. During the night out he has become separated from the rest of the group so decides to make his way home alone. Feeling hungry, he decides to get something to eat. Whilst in the fast food restaurant he notices a group of boys, who appear to have been drinking, staring at him. Stuart begins staring back...

3. The End of the Line

Warren, Jayne, Rhys and Angharad have spent the evening celebrating and drinking in the town centre bars and clubs. They've had a fantastic night and decide to head for the taxi rank to get home. For a bit of fun, Warren and Rhys start to chase the girls along the street trying to grab their bags, causing them to bump into people queuing for a taxi. Warren and Mike become involved in an argument with a couple of people who are pushed off the pavement. As Jayne and Angharad try to separate them, Jayne gets hit. Suddenly it all kicks off ...

4. The Sound of Broken Glass

Dean is out with a group of friends celebrating his birthday. As he finishes his bottle of beer, he attempts to throw the empty bottle into a nearby litter bin. The empty bottle misses the bin and smashes against a wall showering a group of men and women with broken glass. One of the men approaches Dean but before anything is said, one of Dean's mates throws a punch ...

5. Local Rivals

Jack goes to watch the local rugby team play a cup match against their local rivals with a big group of his friends from the youth team. They go to the pub beforehand to play drinking games and continue drinking during the match. It's a close game and afterwards Jack and his friends carrying on drinking in the club house. The opposition supporters are also drinking in the clubhouse and there is a disagreement about a decision made by the referee. Soon a big row starts and a glass gets thrown ...

6. Let's Celebrate!

It's A-level results day and you and friends are going to celebrate your results. Everyone meets early at your house, the booze is flowing and there's lots of laughter. It's going to be great night. Taxis into the nearby town centre, rounds of shots in a pub and then on to your favourite club. But it's already full with other people celebrating so you end up going to a club that you haven't been to before. It looks a bit dodgy but there's no queue and even better the drinks are cheap. You start dancing in a big group and having a good time but it's really packed and there's lots of pushing and shoving. Things quickly turn nasty...

